

BRIEF CITY NEWS

Local Traffic Heavy—Sunshine yesterday brought out a rush of passenger traffic on local trains, both in and out of the city. The bad weather which has held the boards so extensively in the last several months has kept traffic tied down to a very marked degree. When it finally breaks away the railroad people expect to get exceedingly busy.

Christian Church—Come and worship with us today at Library Hall, Bible school at 10 a. m.; sermon at 11. Subject: "A True Friend." Young people's prayer meeting at 6:45; preaching at 7:45 p. m.; sermon topic: "Turning the World Upside Down." A welcome to all. J. A. Smith, Pastor.

Says He Was Rolled—Con Sullivan and Pat McNellis will be arraigned before Judge Murphy Monday afternoon at 1 on a charge of larceny preferred by Joe Williams. The latter claims that while drinking on Thursday night he was robbed by McNellis and Sullivan of $65. Stories concerning the affair differ. Sullivan and McNellis claim that when brought to trial they will have no difficulty in clearing themselves. Theft of the amount charged by Williams constitutes a penitentiary offense.

Another to Cananea—The E. P. & S. W. yesterday made announcement of an excursion to Cananea on May 6, next Saturday. The round trip rate will be $2.50. Efforts are being made for special train service. The occasion is the Elks' gathering at Cananea.

Vagrants Arrested—Three vagrants were before Judge Murphy yesterday morning. They were given five days in jail each. One drunk was before the court, and also got five days.

Bakersville Man Fined—Judge McDonald yesterday fined Landford Stanaway, of the Bakersville hotel, $20. This was because Stanaway refused to give to Assessor O'Reilly a sworn statement of assessable property. Stanaway gave notice yesterday of appeal of the case.

Bad Runaway—As the result of injuries sustained in a runaway a valuable horse belonging to Anderson & Cull had to be shot yesterday at Lowell. The animal had a broken leg. The runaway was the result of the delivery wagon of the grocery upsetting as it was thrown off, but not hurt. He lost hold on the horses attached to the wagon when he fell, and they ran until one of the horses was thrown down.

Ball Team Takes Departure—Bisbee team boys left last evening on the Drummers' special. They went away from town with confidence in the superlative degree that they had a winning coming to them at El Paso today. Manager Sowles did not accompany the team on the trip. He was at the train, however, to see the boys off and to tell them how it ought to be done.

Suit Filed—Hood & Moore yesterday filed suit against Robert Aborn for $65, an amount alleged due for supplies furnished Aborn by the company in the fuel and feed line. Mr. Aborn received the papers yesterday afternoon and it is understood will make answer to-morrow.

Back Injured—Wm. Trezise, a miner, is suffering from an injured back, the result of a large boulder falling upon him while he was working in a tope. At first it was feared that the injury would terminate seriously, but yesterday it was stated that Mr. Trezise was getting along very nicely.

Transferred to Naco—W. B. Phares and wife left yesterday for Naco, where Mr. Phares goes to take the position of ticket clerk at the Naco depot of the E. P. & S. W. He has been here recently as operator at the local depot.

Street Paving—The impression prevails that at its next regular meeting, which occurs on Tuesday night, the Council will take decisive steps in the matter of street paving on Main and Brewery. Business men are exceedingly anxious that the work should be gotten under way as speedily as possible. There is chance for it to be done between now and the coming of the summer rainy season.

Growing Popularity—Indications are that the natatorium will be the most popular institution in the town during the succeeding warm months. The warm days that have been so far had give encouragement to this idea, for they have been characterized by rushes to the swimming pool.
